ALABAMA.

MEETING OF THE CONVENTION—PERSONNEL OF THE CONVENTION—AN EXTRAORDINARY CONGREGATION.

MONTGOMERY, Alabama, November 8th, 1867.—To-day the Congressional plan of reconstructing the South on a negro basis was formally inaugurated here. The Alabama Convention met at noon and was temporarily organized by the appointment as chairman of Albert Griffin, of Ohio, now editor of the negro paper, the Nationalist, in Mobile, and a prominent actor in the Keiley riot. Of the 100 delegates elect, 84 were present, sixteen of that number being blacks. The one single conservative elected was in his seat, and thus, with a Radical majority of 83, the initial Convention of the Sherman Shellabarger plan began.—Let me describe the personnel of that Convention, taking its members in alphabetic order. First comes

Thomas Adams, of Clay County, a plain, farmer-like looking man, some fifty years of age, and so obscure as to have no discoverable political antecedents. After him,

Ben Alexander, of Hale, a negro of the ordinary type of field hand.

J. L. Alexander, of Elmore, a native Alabamian, who served for a time as a private in Company "K," First Alabama infantry, C. S. A., a commonplace character and not over highly spoken of by his comrades, though nothing to his actual discredit is alleged.

A. J. Applegate, of Madison, a North Alabamian, chiefly known for a squabble with Figures, a tenth rate demagogue of Huntsville, who in some way put him (Applegate) to the rout with two negroes.

Wm. A. Austin, of Jackson, a plain countryman, native Alabamian, who has been for some twenty years back in the State Senate, and was a member of the Secession Convention in '61.

J. H. Autry, of Calhoun, is a tall, worn looking person, dressed in rude homespun and bearing an air of general mental and habitimentary dilapidation.

Arthur Bingham, of Talladega, is a small man with a chin beard, who seems to possess of some sprightliness, which he normally diffuses on the Freedmen's Bureau, whereof he is an official.

D. H. Bingham, of Lauderdale, would answer to Spencer's "old, old man, with beard as white as snow" but for the fact that his beard is dyed of a preternatural black, with the white only appearing in a thin line next to the face that it adorns.—Mr. or Captain Brigham is, however, of indubitable age, the oldest man by perhaps fifteen years of any in the Convention, and the intensity of his Radicalism is entirely co-ordinate with his lengthened span of life. It is a pitiable sight to behold this ancient with his poor, old dyed beard and his glazing eye and quivering mouth, rise tremulously in his seat to mumble out the extremest dogma of his sect. Like five-and-twenty of his colleagues, the captain has a Constitution in his pocket, and the chief points in this instrument are the disfranchisement of "all rebels" and the enforced settlement, in the present currency, of all trust states lost in Alabama during the war by fiduciary investment, under State acts, in Confederate securities.

W. H. Black is a Northern man of small size and little note.

W. T. Blackford is likewise a Northern man, a Bureau official, and the wearer of one of the two really clean shirts visible in the Convention. Altogether, Mr. Blackford is a reputable looking person, and would not be out of place in the Legislature of his own State in the North.

Mark D. Brainard, of New York, is a very, very young man with a florid cheek and a coming moustache. His is a post office clerk has something to do with the Bureau and is said, when elected, in accordance with the programme for Monroe, not to have known exactly where "his county" lay.

Alfred E. Buck, of Maine, is not otherwise noticeable than for the singularity of his soubriquet in Mobile, which he "represents."

Charles W. Buckley, of Massachusetts, is a clergyman who ministers to the spiritual needs of the Bureau, and is an educational superintendent also of that organization, his brother

W. M. Buckley, likewise of Massachusetts, of course, "represents" the wealthy county of Lowndes, and is thought to bear a facial resemblance to the late lamented John Brown of peripatetic soul.

J. H. Burdick, of Iowa, speaks the sentiments of Wilcox, which sentiments, in this rendition, are fiercely radical.

Pierce Burton, of Massachusetts, was removed from the Bureau for writing a letter to the Springfield Republican, advocating a repeal of the cotton tax, but as the negroes favor that view the breach has been healed, and Mr. B. is the delegate from Marengo.

C. M. Cabot is a Northern man, who was in the reconstruction convention of '65, which he is now, in '67, seeking to reconstruct in turn.

John Carroway is a light mulatto with a black hair of magnificent proportions. At its supreme altitude this ornament extends fully five inches straight out from the nape of the neck, forming a right angle very comely to the eye. Mr. Carroway is assistant editor of the Mobile Nationalist, and it is a matter of professional courtesy to make record his distinguishing attribute.

Alfred Collins is a plain, clean-shaved, middle aged divine, who was in the Legislature of '65.

D. E. Coon, of Iowa, and lately a brigadier in the United States army, is a small man of a rather Jewish look. He "represents" Dallas, and gave the convention quite a turn to day by introducing a resolution about oaths.

Joseph H. Davis, of Randolph, is an Alabamian, said to have served as Surgeon in the United States army and to have reconstructed Alabama once before, to wit: in the Convention of '65.

R. Deal, of Dale, is also one of those who did the work negligently in 1865. He is a Baptist preacher and let us hope has better success in reconstructing souls than over-eighties.

Thomas Diggs is a negro whose head is grizzled and whose hue is brown. He "represents" Barbour and makes a beautiful cross mark when signing his name.

Charles H. Dustan, of Illinois, is an ex-general officer United States Army. No particular antecedents.

George J. Dykes, of Cherokee, is an Alabamian and a Radical, not Conservative, as at first reported. There was some dispute as to this gentleman's views and the contention seems to have left him exceedingly red in the face. "Radical heat," perhaps, as Uncle Toby would say.

George Ely, of Massachusetts, is a smug little man, with neat whiskers and "slick," smooth hair. He lives here and represents Russell County. Mr. E. is brother of that Congressman Ely who came to grief at the first Manassas.

W. T. Ewing is one of the original Moulton Leaguers, who in 1865 first organized the Radical party of Alabama. He has still, badger-gray hair, that shoots fiercely upward, like Andrew Jackson's; and, like Jackson, will hear of no compromise.

James Palmer is James Palmer, which is obscurity itself.

Peyton Finley is a city negro who once paid the door open for members in that very chamber where he now sits as a delegate, and, if memory do not fail, I have for my poor self paid him, on "a full day," tribute to the extent of thirty five cents currency for a chair. Mr. Finley being of huge size, I forbear further reminiscence, lest in the exalted position to which the wisdom of my country has assigned him, it should strike him as desirable to annihilate the recorder of unwelcome annals.

Samuel S. Gardner, of Massachusetts, is a Bureau official.

W. C. Garrison is a rough-looking old Alabamian, heretofore unknown. Two editor, two reporters, and a Secretary of State looked at him and could not make him out.

G. W. Graves is a Virginian who was first a carpenter and then taught himself medicine, which he now practices.

Early Greathouse is a Baptist preacher, but a preacher after such fashion as would make the well-kidded and neat neck-tied ecclesiastics of Gotham gasp and stare.—His appearance and political "views," and doubtless, theological tenets also, are comprised in one word, and that word is rough. There is but one thing about Elder Greathouse that is at all smooth and that is his tongue; but apt as this is, it is at least problematical whether a knack at "exposition" is exactly the thing whereby to restore the heaviest cotton producing State in the Union, as Alabama is, to proper parity and power.

James K. Green is a negro who takes the name of the master whose carriage he once drove. The name of this statesman does not appear on the signed list, Jones's modesty which withheld his sole signature, an X mark.

Ovide Gregon is a light mulatto from Mobile, whose thin lips, keen cut jaws and furtive eyes seem to body forth a Malay type of man. It was this Ovide who, as the phrase goes, "busted Busteed," withdrawing the favor of Ethiopia, on one occasion, from that vivacious and admirable Judge.

Albert Griffin, of Ohio, is the editor of the Mobile negro organ, and, as stated, had the honor of primarily presiding over the "Convention." But for a trifle more youth and a trifle less uncleanliness, A. G. might well be taken for Mr. Chadband, and, like that good man, hides by a certain outward greasiness much inward venom. He is a bitter Radical, and has, perhaps, a majority in Convention to back him.

Thomas Haughey has no name.

Jordan Hatcher, of Dallas, is a grizzled negro of lightish hue, who, after a not unusual fashion, takes his former master's name.

J. F. Herst is a white man of no note.

James H. Howard, of Conshaw, the only Conservative in the Convention, is a fine soldierly looking young man, and native Alabamian.

Jas. A. Jackson is an unknown.

R. M. Johnson, of Illinois, misrepresents Coffee County.

Wash. Johnson has the very blackest skin and the very worst signature of any patriot of the whole eighty three. His hue is, without jest, a jet black, and his autograph, the sum total of his writing abilities, might stand equally well for Smith, or Van Landt, or Schemerhorn.

John C. Jolly is a large unknown.

A. W. Jones is a ghost. That is to say he is the gentleman who was barbarously murdered by a "rebel outrage" which originated here in Montgomery and killed him off successively in every truly loyal sheet in the country. Mr. J. writes a very unspectre like hand and misrepresents Conecuh.

C. Jones is a yellow negro, who, on being called up to the Secretary's desk to register his name, expectorated with a refreshing abandon that provoked a general smile, and then made his mark.

John C. Keller, of Pennsylvania, is Chairman of the Radical Executive State Committee, and is known to the malignants as the "head devil" of the Loyal League. He is a protege of Forney's, has been connected with the Philadelphia Press, and, by virtue of strict patriotism, has put money in his purse. He was a candidate for President of the Convention, but withdrew.

S. F. Kinnemon is a North Alabama inhospitability.

Thomas Lee, of Perry, is a negro who finds that it assists him very much in signing his name to lean his head quite on one side, and not be in a hurry about it. He is very black.

Samuel R. Landon unknown.

David Lore unknown.

W. McGown comes from Tallapoosa, the habitat of Simon Suggs, whom McGown resembles. Otherwise unknown.

J. W. Mahan, a rough looking unknown.

J. J. Martin is a military appointee probate judge. A Southern man.

B. O. Masterson, unknown.

Charles A. Miller, of Maine, wears the second of the two clean shirts in the Convention. He was for six years clerk of the Maine House of Representatives, and is an ex-Federal army officer, a major.

Stephen Moore, of Baldwin, is an old man little known. An Alabamian.

A. C. Morgan is from the North, very extreme in his politics, but personally presentable.

J. T. Morton was in the U. S. army, also in the reconstruction convention of 1865.

B. W. Norris, of Maine, is a truly loyal man. He was a United States Commissary, has bought a large plantation, and is a large man, with a large beard and a high forehead, and a wide nostril—two of them—that scent treason in every gale. Major Norris cannot abide rebel preachers; but the savor of a Union cleric is sweet unto his soul. Therefore he vigorously insisted today that none but a "sale" chaplain should be elected, and on this rock the convention split into adjournment.

S. W. Peck, of Tuscaloosa, is an old Alabama lawyer, and a good one. He is the permanent President of the Convention; but never having been in public life before, is sadly at a loss for parliamentary law.—Things will enact, and the old advocate was ten times more wearied and adust and atrabilious when to-day's session closed than when it began.

Thomas S. Peters, of Lawrence, is an Alabamian of some tertiary note.

R. M. Reynolds, of Iowa, has been six months in Alabama, and very naturally "knows all about it." He is an ardent loyalist.

Lafayette Robinson and Benjamin Rolfe are either whites or blacks, and it is impossible at date of writing to say which, things are so mixed in convention, the race-sifting check by jowl and everybody being Mr.

H. C. Russell, of Barbour, is said to have been at the close of the war under sentence of death for mutiny. He is now a truly loyal man, and purposes to have the name of Bullock County changed.

T. J. Russell, of Chambers, is a mobile preacher who took advantage of a military order forbidding the running of a Conservative ticket in his county to secure an election. The Rev. gentleman was in the secession Convention of '61, but now favors a strict adherence to that precious and searching testimony, the test oath.

B. F. Saffold is a Virginian. Was a major Confederate States army, and is now military mayor of Selma and a truly loyal man.

Henry C. Semple is a Virginian and nephew of ex-President Tyler, whose Private Secretary he was.

J. Silsby, of Massachusetts, is a Bureau reverend.

C. P. Simmons is an unknown.

William Skinner is the best speaker so far heard in Convention. He is rapid and turious, which met hearty applause, one shrill cry of exultation bursting forth at a peculiarly severe assault on the white population of the State.

Joseph H. Speed, of Virginia, is a cousin of Attorney General Speed, was a Captain, C. S. A.; and afterwards C. S. Salt agent of Alabama.

M. J. Springfield, of Alabama, unknown.

M. D. Stanwood defies effort to locate him. It is thought, however, that he is from Massachusetts, where he has a brother. He has been a cattle drover to California and is credited with several negro disturbances more or less serious in this State.

Little Bury Strange unknown.

J. P. Stow is a Northern man, resident here for some years.

Alfred Strother is a negro of intense blackness, and would have gone to sleep at one time in convention, but for a timely witticism which woke a laugh in the hall.

Taliaferro Towles is an original Union man. Was in the '65 Convention. A tenth rate.

J. R. Walker an unknown.

N. A. Walker, an ex-U. S. officer.

B. L. Whelan, Irish, ex-captain C. S. A.

C. O. Whitney, unknown.

J. W. Wilhite was in the '65 Legislature. Prior to that, 'tis said, a U. S. sutler.

J. A. Yordy, an unknown, closes the list, and of such obscurities, nonentities, adventurers, negroes, officials, and fanatics, is this sovereign Convention composed. Proceedings must be deferred to another letter.

Fayetteville Street.

I AM NOW RECEIVING MY FALL AND WINter Stock of

Staple and Fancy Dry Goods,

And I can say, with safety, that I have one among the largest and most complete stocks that has ever been brought to this City, either before or since the war,—embracing almost any and everything suitable for Ladies' and Gentlemen's wear.

CALICOES, 10, 12½, 15 and 18 cents per yard.
FRENCH MERINOS, 75 cts. to $1.25 per yard.
DELAINES, POPLINS, and a great variety of other Dress Goods, embracing all the new novelties of the season, and will be sold cheap enough to insure sales.
BROWN DOMESTICS, 12½, 15 and 20 cts. per yard.
BLEACHED DOMESTICS, 12½, 15, 20 and 25 cts. per yard, and all other goods in proportion.
Also, the largest and most varied stock of

CLOTHS,
CASSIMERES,
SATINETS,
TWEEDS, AND KENTUCKY JEANS

I ever offered to the trade in this City, both as to price and quality.
Also a very fine assortment of White and Colored FLANNELS,
LADIES' CLOAKS,
BREAKFAST SHAWLS,
SQUARE AND LONG SHAWLS,

which will be sold at prices to suit my customers.
Ladies', Misses' and Children's TRIMMED AND UNTRIMMED HATS,—new styles, from 50 cents to $4.00 each.

Boots and Shoes, Boots and Shoes.

The largest and best stock I ever brought to the City, consisting, in part, of J. Miles & Sons' make and others of equally high standing.
Ladies' Pegged Balmorals, from $1 to $3.
Ladies Sewed Balmorals, from $1.50 to $5.50.
CREECH'S is the place to come to buy your Boots and Shoes.

Hats, Hats, Hats,

From 75 cts. to $4.00. Don't stop until you come to CREECH'S to buy your Hats. In fact, I think I can meet the expectations of all my customers and the public generally, both as to price and quality of ALL Goods.
Now a few words to my customers and friends: You see a great many different styles of advertisements. Some say they are in "Sack again;" some say they have "hit the nail on the head;" some "selling out at cost;" some to "make room for a new stock;" some one thing and some another. But allow me to say, whether I am in luck, or whether I hit the nail on the head, or whether I missed the nail entirely, or failed to advertise "selling out at cost," I have sold out my old stock, (while they are still hammering away over their old stock,) and have been North and bought a new stock. My goods are now in Store, and opened for inspection.

COME AND LOOK AT THEM.

I told my customers, six months ago, that I would sell goods as cheap as Yankee, Jew or Gentile, and I think I have made my word good.
I told the people to come to Creech's to buy their goods, that I would serve them right, hundreds have come, and they are still coming from this and adjoining Counties. And I here take the privilege to say, I think they have shown their good judgment.
Don't forget to come to

CONSERVATIVE TICKET FOR THE CONVENTION IN WAKE.

HON. DANIEL G. FOWLE,
REV. BENNET T. BLAKE,
PRIESTLY H. MANGUM, Esq.
DR. JNO. A. McLEAN.

SOUTHERN STATE CONVENTIONS.

We publish, on our first page, this morning, a sketch of the personnel of the Alabama "Reconstruction" Convention, now in session, in order to show, by a perfectly fair sample, the material of which the Radical party in the South is composed, and the character of the men to whom is entrusted the grave work of making Constitutions of government, by which great States, with boundless resources and a noble people, are to be guided. From all accounts, the Convention of Virginia is made up, so far as the Radical majority is concerned, of even more disgraceful elements. What a spectacle is here presented—to shame our annals and degrade an enlightened age!

The proceedings in this Alabama Babel, thus far inaugurated, are in keeping with its constituent character, and our people may see by them the results of Radical rule. Its first move is to get the State government into other hands than those that now hold it. This measure receives the support of "the negroes and the extreme members." Another proposition is to go behind the record of courts in cases of alleged crime and pursue some private feuds in public law. One more measure is supported by very "violent speeches." This is a measure of wholesale disfranchisement, and the Convention has determined, by a vote of sixty-three to twenty-two, that it will have some such measure and will not leave disfranchisement where it was left by the Military Bill. The Convention will carry radicalism further than Congress dared. Proscription and persecution are the words.

It will be so in all the other States which have thus far fallen under the Radical curse. All the learning, all regard for stability of society, all discretion, all sense of justice, all love for law, in them, have been driven from the governing councils, and their places supplied by ignorance, brutality and revenge.

In this State, the Radical candidates are either illiterate, resentful and inflamed negroes, or, generally speaking, white men, "to name and fame unknown," and political adventurers, who, with some few exceptions, were, probably, the scum of Northern politics. There have been four State Conventions in North Carolina since the day when, as one of the "Old Thirteen," she fought for freedom. The first, which framed the original Constitution, was composed of such men as Caswell, Harnett, Ashe, Willie Jones and Abner Nash; the second, which amended that Constitution, had among its numbers Gaston, Macon, Stanly, Speight and Morehead; the third, which sought to sever the connection of North Carolina with the Union, and the fourth, which thought that it was "reconstructing it," were made up of the best, ablest and most discreet men in our midst. The fifth, if Radicalized,—look at Alabama!

But we can prevent this Convention from falling into such hands, fellow-citizens, if we will to do so. The Conservative white men in North Carolina,—largely in a majority,—can stem the torrent which has swept over our hapless sister States, and now threatens to engulph us. Then arouse yourselves from apathy,—rally to the polls,—and do all that is left for you to do for North Carolina!

STATE CONSERVATIVE CONVENTION.

A Convention of Conservative delegates from the Counties of this State will be held in this City, on Wednesday, the 11th. of December next.

It is important that every county in the State be represented. Business of the greatest importance will be laid before that body. We beg that, wherever meetings have not been held in the various counties, they be held forthwith, and delegates appointed.

THE NEW YORK Post (Radical) admits that the high handed and unconstitutional schemes proposed by the Radical leaders in Congress—such as the suffrage law to be imposed upon the States—the impeachment business—the confiscation threats—the gigantic plans for supporting and educating negroes at the expense of the nation—have caused the recent uprising and rebuke of the people.

A COMPLIMENTARY serenade on a grand scale was given to President Johnson, last evening. The most extensive arrangements were made for a grand demonstration. It was expected that the President would speak at length.

MECKLENBURG.—The Conservatives of Mecklenburg have brought out an admirable ticket, viz: Rev. John Hunter and Thos. Gluyas, Esq. The News says:

"The Rev. John Hunter, one of the nominees, a minister of the Associate Reformed Church, is widely known in this county as a gentleman of the most unblemished integrity, and of the purest and most elevated Christian character. Mr. Hunter has never been connected in any way with politics or politicians, and is peculiarly acceptable to all our citizens, irrespective of parties.

Thomas Gluyas, Esq., the other nominee, has always been a consistent Union man, and is, moreover, a clear headed, sensible, practical mechanic, and is universally esteemed as a man of unsullied character.—With such a ticket, old Mecklenburg will pass the fire with garments unscorched, and put the final seal of denunciation upon Radical fanaticism."

THE BLACK MAN'S PARTY.

We have sincerely hoped that no necessity would arise, in North Carolina, for the formation of parties distinguished by color. The fact that there are two whites to one black man in North Carolina, we hoped, would convince the blacks of the folly of the people of that color concentrating generally in support of the Radical party.—But they have forced the issue upon the white people of the State, in spite of the efforts of the conservative whites to prevent it.

There are hundreds and thousands of colored men in the State, whose views and feelings are conservative. They believe that they can depend better upon the white gentlemen, whom they have known to be just men, than upon those who have recently promised to be their friends, and who are acting with the Radical party. They are disposed to vote the Conservative ticket, but such are the threats and the terrors which the Radicals employ, to deter them, that it is deemed to be absolutely unsafe for a colored man to go to the polls and vote the Conservative ticket. We hope, therefore, they will not vote at all. They are freemen, but if they cannot vote as they please, let them not vote at all.

In this city, every colored man is marked, who talks at all Conservative. An intelligent colored man, the other day, said to one of the Conservative candidates, that he liked his views and should vote for him. A day or two afterwards, he told the candidate, that such was the pressure upon him, he dared not vote for him. Is not this, then, making the Radical party a Black Man's Party? If colored men are to be hunted down, because they want to vote for Conservative white men—men of the best standing among us,—what is the Radical party but the Black Man's Party?

Jim Harris wants the daguerreotype of every black or colored man of Wake who will vote the Conservative ticket. Well, let us have the name of every white man in Wake County, who will vote the black Radical ticket, after such conduct is exhibited on the part of the Radicals. Let the polls be watched closely, at every precinct, and let the name of every white man be remembered who will vote the black Radical ticket.—Let a record be kept of such white men. It will do to look at some of these days.—Along side of such a black roll of white men, we should like to have the names of Conservative colored men, who would have voted right, but were deterred by the threats of the black Radical party.

BERTIE COUNTY.—FRUITS OF RADICALISM.

The only candidates for the Convention thus far in the field, in the County of Bertie, are two negroes, who have been regularly nominated by the Leaguers. As the negro majority in the County is decided, the probability is that they will be elected, although, we are assured, every effort will be made to secure the success of good and proper men.

As a specimen of the intelligence and animus not only of these immediate negro aspirants, but of the designs and character of Radicalism in North Carolina, we publish below, verbatim et literatim, an appeal to the negro-Radical party in Bertie, which is being secretly circulated in many, if not all, parts of the County. The paper before us is an original, and is forwarded for publication by a gentleman of high character in the County, who has a record of consistent Unionism, but who is shocked and disgusted at the tendencies of the mongrel Radical party. Here is the document, the original of which may be seen at this office:

November 4th. 1867.

Gentman of Cole Rain, Bertie County:

Voters of Weston Districts will Band in mind that the (2) Delagats now is orthorized for the frend of all collars, and that contains Black & White gentmans and collard gentmans. Want you all To Du the Best for them that you can for this Country is in such mens hands like them and I know that you all Have sum under-standing as Well as me. And if you have not, for gods Sacke go to sum Person that you know will Correct you. if you Du not we ar Hunted far Ever. But you all know That your self and farther wars gentmans—how can you vote for a man Whar hav bad your labor all your Days and that ar not mony That will give you and mee justice. how can a cullard man vote any other way only tur a cullard man at this time, and after the Constitution is formed then we Will send any Person that we Pleas White or cullard. But for this time try and make the Best step that you can. if thar should Bee any Cullard Person that wants to vote A Democratic vote, frail him untill he knows Nothing. if you Du that Will Bee just like they served them in Veriginia & it thar shud Bee a man of such Carrecktar make him shure fur a while.

Thes are able Dellagats
MR. PARKER D. ROBBINS
BRIANT GEE.

We do not know who is the Commandant of the Post, embracing Bertie, but we call the attention of the military authorities to this incendiary Circular. It is supposed to be the work of the would be "Dellagats," themselves. Robbins is the brother of the negro Registrar for the County, and is said to be the most intelligent (Heaven save the mark!) of the two. And yet Radicalism would commit the solemn work of framing a Constitution for a great and noble State into the hands of such ignorance and bestiality! What man of ordinary decency, white or colored, will longer co-operate with such a spirit?

The threat contained in the foregoing Circular, though it may not be elsewhere written or printed, is a common one. Many colored men, who deprecate the headlong folly and madness of their race, and are disposed to do right, are afraid to vote the Conservative ticket. They are living in a state of intimidation and terror that it is melancholy to contemplate. They feel that it will be unsafe for them to follow the honest dictates of their judgments. And this is freedom, virtuous and intelligent suffrage, and Republican America! In one word, this is Radicalism!

——The Newbern Republican rather intimates that the Hon. B. F. Moore, of this City, is a sympathizer with Radicalism. We presume that there is no gentleman in this State too obnoxious to such a suspicion

"HAS IT COME TO THIS!"

Mr. Holden and Mr. G. L. Harris are the great Radical luminaries who gladden the dark chambers of the Leagues hereabouts. There are others who may be ranked as farthing candles, but they are the bright and shining lights. Their love for the negro "passeth that of woman." The time was when it was just the other way. The time was when "unqualified opposition to negro suffrage" was not only worn as a frontlet between the eyes, but when the simple indication of a political or personal preference, on the part of a colored man, was deemed a superlative impudence.

Mr. Holden issued an extra from his office, on the 29th. of July, 1864, in which he alleged that "fraud and fraud" were resorted to in the Raleigh Hospitals to influence and control the votes of the soldiers, in favor of Governor Vance, and in opposition to him, for Governor. Among other grievances, he recited the following. We quote from the extra,—the capitals and italics being our own:

"At another one of the hospitals the officers were very active in dictating to the men: and by their permission—for it was done in their presence without rebuke—the negro waiters attached to the hospital went out among the men during the election with Vance tickets stuck in their hats. If a poor soldier in that hospital, or in the Fair Ground hospital, had stuck a Holden ticket in his hat, he would have been ordered at once to his regiment. High times, indeed, when the negro is allowed, by hoisting a certain name, to indicate to our WHITE soldiers how they ought to vote. GREAT GOD!—HAS IT COME TO THIS? Is this one of the results of "peaceable secession!" But this insult to those opposed to Gov. Vance had to be endured, for if any soldier had inflicted merited chastisement on these slaves, he would no doubt have been sent at once to the army as a punishment for so doing. We obtained this fact from a citizen of Wake County of undoubted character for veracity, who saw with his own eyes these negroes going about with Vance tickets in their hats."

Mr. Holden evidently thought that these negroes were terrible "rebels,"—for, mark you! they were not ordered to do this thing. They did it "by permission,"—implying both a willingness and a desire, on their part. If Mr. Holden and his fellow Radicals had not an axe to grind,—if they did not think that they could control the votes of the negroes, "by force and fraud,"—they would be as much opposed now to allowing the negroes to vote, as he was then to "permitting" them to have a preference!

And Mr. C. L. Harris! On the 21st. of July, 1864, he issued an address to his constituents in the mountains, in which he arraigned his competitor for legislative honors on several counts,—among others the following:

"Last, though not least, he favored the act suspending the privilege of the writ of habeas corpus, which deprives every freeman in the Confederate States of his rights and liberties, some of whom have been arrested, plunged into prison, there to languish, ignorant of the charges against them and denied the right of trial—and they may have been arrested by the mere declaration of a KIDNEY FOOTED NEGRO—to make negro evidence valid being one of the reasons assigned for the suspension of the privilege of the writ."

Mr. Harris has been very consistent, we will do him the justice to say, in his opposition to negro evidence; for he voted against it in the Legislature of 1865-'6—after the negroes had been made freemen!

"——Behold your light, your star;
Ye would be dupes and victims.—and ye are!"

THE ELECTION—FORM OF VOTING.

The following correspondence, which we find in the last Wilmington Journal, speaks for itself:

WILMINGTON, N. C., Oct. 28.

SIR:—There being considerable difference of opinion upon the right of an elector, under the Act of Congress, and the order of the Commanding General, to vote for or against a Convention and not for delegates, or for delegates and not upon the question of a Convention, and it being a matter of great interest and importance, I have presumed to seek an official decision upon it.—I see nothing in the Act of Congress, or in the order of Major General Canby, to prevent the exercise of this privilege by the voter, but desiring, as the editor of a paper, to be governed by unquestioned authority in any advice I may give, I hope it will not be inconsistent with your engagements or duty to favor me with an early reply.

I am, very respectfully,
JOS. A. ENGELHARD.

TO LT. L. V. CAZIARC,
Aid de Camp, Act. Asst. Adjt. Gen.
Charleston, S. C.

HEAD'QRS 2D MILITARY DISTRICT,
CHARLESTON, S. C., Nov. 7, 1867.

MR. JOSEPH A. ENGELHARD,
Office Daily and Weekly Journal,
Wilmington, N. C.

SIR:—In reply to your communication of Oct. 28th., I have the honor to state that the Acts of Reconstruction leave no discretion as to the subject referred to by you to the Commanding General.

Only those votes for delegates which conform to the Acts of Congress by being scribed either "for a Convention," "against a Convention," can be counted the canvass of votes.

Very respectfully, sir,
Your obedient servant,
L. V. CAZIARC,
Aid-de-Camp, Actg. Asst. Adjt. Gen.

Entire non-action, therefore, by staying away from the polls, can only result in placing the Convention, which is to frame our organic law, in the hands of a set of men who will manipulate it to the ruin and degradation of a large majority of the people of North Carolina. See what the Convention of Alabama is doing, and take warning!

White men of North Carolina! Go to the polls and vote,—vote as your judgments and convictions of duty may dictate on the question of Convention,—but vote for sound, reliable, true-hearted delegates to represent you in that Convention. If you neglect this solemn duty, you may have cause to rue it for the remainder of your days.

Devote Tuesday and Wednesday next to North Carolina,—the good old land of your pride and affections!

"GONE IN HIS HOLE."—We have information from Lincoln County, that Hagar, the mossy-back Republican candidate in that County for Convention, has withdrawn from the field, leaving our friend Graham to walk on the track.

AFRICANS MAKING STATE CONSTITUTIONS.

Wherever there is intelligence to appreciate the mental and moral qualities heretofore considered necessary to build up the machinery of government for a State, the things being done by the Republican party in the late insurrectionary communities of the South will be watched with intense interest. The Constitutional Convention assembled in Alabama under the Reconstruction acts, and the immediate military supervision of Maj. General Pope, met on last Tuesday, the day of the election in this State. We have specially noted the accounts of its proceedings given by the correspondents of newspapers not friendly to the Democratic party. In the State referred to, the Convention was temporarily organized by the selection of the editor of a Radical newspaper, Griffin, late from Chicago, Illinois, as presiding officer. Peck, of Alabama, was then elected permanent President.—When this was done, a motion was made and carried that the members register their names. Of the African delegates, one half could not write their names, but made the X marks. This being over, the election of Secretary took place. Barbour, late agent of the Freedmen's Bureau, was one candidate, and Patrick another. The vote was taken by count, and when the first African was called, he insisted upon answering "here."—The clerk repeated his name only to get a louder response, "HERE." Here was a bitch for here was not a candidate. At length the President explained to the Africans that they were not at plantation muster, answering at roll call, but were voting either for Barbour or Patrick, and the Convention started again. An African was then made Assistant Secretary. Some white members then attempted to get a white door-keeper. This led to a vote by count, and the African was successful. Then came a proposition that the members take the iron-clad oath provided by Congress, which all federal officers in the North and lawyers in the federal courts are required to subscribe. This made trouble, for many Radical delegates were during the war Radical rebels. The difficulty, however, was overcome by the fortunate suggestion that, as Gen. Pope had approved the selection of, and called the delegates, the oath was dispensed. Quite a cute dodge! This ended the first day's performance!

Later in the proceedings Gen. Pope sent to the Convention a proposition to provide at once for a sort of provisional government to remain in existence till Congress acts on the one to be matured (?) by the Convention. Under the Pope plan, all existing State offices are declared vacant; a provisional governor is to be appointed by the Convention, and he is to select all needed State officials. This proposition was referred to the proper Committee. A motion to lay it on the table was defeated, but it will be ultimately adopted, the Africans and white Radicals approving it. Thus much for a new Convention for Alabama!—N. Y. World.

From the Lynchburg News.

A DEVILISH PLOT DISCOVERED.

We are no sensationists, but we cannot shut our eyes to the alarming fact that the negroes mean mischief. On Saturday a negro of Conservative principles, named Bernard Brooks, lodged complaint with Justice Bruce, a magistrate of Campbell county, that Jacob Jones and Jacob Johnson, two negro Radicals living in the country, near McAllister's Shop, were prepared to kill him, and asked for a warrant for their arrest. The warrant was issued and placed in the hands of the Constable George M. Bruce, and the accused were arrested and brought to the city, where they were partially examined before Justices D. P. Reese, James M. Langhorne and George M. Bruce, which resulted in the prisoners being committed to jail for further hearing on Friday next.

Among the witnesses examined was Mrs. Dr. McAllister, who stated that negroes, to the number of fifty or more, had been holding frequent meetings on her husband's plantation, seven miles below the city on the Richmond road, and that she finally had her suspicions aroused to such a pitch that she determined to see what was going on. Friday night she went to the house where a meeting was being held, and upon nearing found a dog tied, as she supposed to give the alarm should any one approach. Returning to her own house near by, she provided herself with bread to give the dog to keep him quiet, succeeded in her plan, and finally reached the cabin undiscovered. There she heard the negroes discussing the mode by which different white people in the neighborhood were to be killed, amongst whom was her husband, who was to be shot.—Other whites were pronounced too mean to be granted so respectable a death, and a grape vine halter was decreed them. The negro mentioned above, Bernard Brooks, was included in the list of those who were to be killed, his offence being his conservatism, and short work was to be made of him with a grape vine. Further developments of the plans of these blood-thirsty villains were made, and the lady became completely satisfied from what she heard, that they were preparing to carry them into speedy execution.

Among the negroes present on the occasion Jacob Johnson and Jacob Jones were identified, and others also, warrants for whose arrest were issued, and will be at once executed.

The negroes under arrest are the lowest and most ignorant of their class, and are just such creatures as can be relied on to do the murderous work, which the teachings of the white scoundrels in our midst have prepared them for, and are urging them to. These diabolical men, with white skins but black hearts, will yet be caught, and then for them—a grape vine and the nearest tree.

GENERAL GRANT'S POSITION.—The telegraphic dispatches from this city to the Boston Post and New York Herald, assuming to give the substance of a conversation between General Grant and a distinguished gentleman formerly in high position, we are assured are highly colored and exaggerated. Nevertheless, we have authority for saying that the conversation between the parties referred to in relation to the Chronicle's exposition of General Grant's status did take place, and that in the course of it the General emphatically declared that the publication in question was wholly unauthorized by him; and that no man or set of men had any authority, direct or indirect, to speak for him, or in his name to proclaim his sentiments or intentions. We shall, perhaps, again refer to this matter more in detail.—Nat. Intel.

NEW YORK.—Additional returns from the interior of the State show still further gains in Assemblymen. Yates county has elected a Democrat to the lower House and one Democratic county officer. Lewis county also elects a Democratic Assemblyman and the whole county ticket. Jefferson county elects a Democratic member in the Second District, while Erie county sends a solid Democratic delegation to the Legislature.—Our figures now give us twenty-four majority in the Assembly and twenty-two majority on joint ballot. There are three districts still in doubt. We have given the Republicans the benefit of the doubt in two and taken the other for the Democracy.—In no case, therefore, can the Democratic majority be under twenty-two, and may reach twenty four or five.—Herald.

YOUNG MEN'S CHRISTIAN ASSOCIATION.

At a meeting of the Young Men's Christian Association of Raleigh, held on the night of the 11th inst., the undersigned was chosen as Chairman of the Committee of Ways and Means, and as the necessities of the poor are already reaching our ears, and deeply exciting our sympathies, I have concluded to make an immediate appeal to all whose hearts have been comforted by the reflection, that "He that giveth to the poor, lendeth to the Lord," to send in their contributions of money, wood, food or clothing, without delay.

To avoid imposition, an active and vigilant Committee has been appointed for each Ward, who will make daily visits to all supposed to be in needy circumstances, or who may be reported as being destitute; and no one will be supplied with assistance, who has not a recommendation signed by said Committee. Thus we wish to put an end to Street begging, and, if supplied with the funds, save many the intolerable impositions, hitherto practiced upon them by a certain class, who prefer to beg rather than work.

The Y. M. C. Association being the only active organization for dispensing the charity of the Public, and for relieving the wants of the destitute of all classes and conditions, they hope to be liberally furnished with funds and contributions of food, clothing and wood, from all who feel an interest in the purposes which bind them together.

We wish to make immediate arrangements to secure a supply of wood, corn and bacon, and an early and liberal response is most earnestly requested.

Last winter, the Association kept 75 families supplied with the necessaries of life, through the assistance of our liberal citizens, the Freedmen's Bureau, and contributions from a distance. The increased poverty, occasioned by another short crop and the low price of cotton, must increase the number of those who rely upon public charity during the winter months, and a corresponding liberality is hoped for.

Contributions of money may be left at the Raleigh National Bank and at the Banking House of Jno. G. Williams & Co.; or with

P. F. PESCUD, Chair'n.
Com. Ways and Means.

City papers will please copy.

A NEW CONFERENCE.—A new Conference of the "Christian" denomination, composed wholly of colored Ministers and Churches, was organized in this city on Monday last and continued in session until Wednesday. The body is connected with the "Christian" denomination, and its organization was supervised by Rev. J. W. Wellons and Rev. H. B. Hayes, appointed by the North Carolina Christian Conference to this duty. Rev. W. B. Wellons, President of the General Convention of the Christian Church, was present on Tuesday, and addressed the body, preaching for them in the afternoon.

The new Conference, we learn, commenced with about six Ministers, and eight or ten Churches, with an aggregate membership of about 600.

Rev. Wm. P. Hayes, colored, of this city, was elected President, and Wm. Ransom, of Franklinton, Secretary. Rev. Samuel Foy, of Newbern, was a prominent member of the Conference.

The next session is to be held at Franklinton, on Friday before the 3rd. Sunday in October, 1868.

The business of this Conference was conducted with order and decorum. The sessions of the body were held in what was formerly called the Neville Church, but which is now a "Christian" Chapel.

THE TRIAL OF MR. DAVIS.—It seems now to be regarded as certain that the trial of Mr. Davis will commence on the 25th. It will be, by far, the most important State trial that has ever taken place in any country, evolving the most complicated problems of law and the solution of the most vexed theories of government. And yet we are told, by telegraph, that, judging from the character of the venire, the jury will be composed principally of negroes!

STATE ITEMS.

——At a meeting of the members of the bar and officers of the Court, held in Clinton, Sampson County, on the 8th. inst., resolutions were adopted, expressing high appreciation of the "official courtesy, high bearing, evident learning and just discrimination" of Hon. E. J. Warren, the presiding Judge. This is both unusual and flattering.

——Messrs. J. H. Flanner and Jno. A. Baker, of this State, are in Paris.

——The Wilmington Journal records the following revolting case of a white woman absconding with a swarthy Lothario:

"Sunday night last officer R. F. Gray, of the Charleston detective force, arrived here from that city in search of a white woman named Mrs. Augusta Finck, and one William Overton (colored), who had absconded from Charleston a few days since, with property to the value of one or two thousand dollars belonging to Henry Finck, the husband of the woman. It appears that Mr. Finck keeps a small grocery in Charleston, and that the negro had been living on his premises for some months, and was on intimate terms with the family. One day last week, the wife of Finck and Overton and his little son were missing, and it was also discovered that in their flight they had taken with them a goodly portion of the personal property of Finck. After some inquiries it was found they had taken the train to this place and were making their way to the North. On Friday his Honor, Mayor Dawson, received a dispatch from the chief of the Charleston detective force, describing the parties and requesting their arrest, at the same time offering a reward of $50 in gold for their apprehension. The matter was placed in the hands of Capt. L. W. Hannon, of the police force of this city, who, on the arrival of the Southern train on Friday night, searched the cars and found the parties answering the description given and made their arrest, at the same time seizing their baggage which was very considerable. The parties were lodged in the guards house and the fact of their apprehension telegraphed to Charleston. Officer Gray was dispached from that city to take them in custody.

Yesterday an inventory of the articles in the possession of these parties was taken. Among the articles found were three gold watches (one of which the negro had on his person), $12 61 in silver coin, $191 00 in gold coin, a large amount of jewelry, silverware, clothing, &c. These were all delivered to officer Gray—Capt. Hannon, in accordance with directions, retaining his reward. Under charge of the officer, the parties left here last night for Charleston, where the property will be turned over to the husband. We know not as yet what stepe will be taken towards prosecuting the guilty parties.

Mrs. Finck is a fine looking woman, apparently about thirty years of age, with an expression of cool determination and unruffled self-possession about her countenance. She viewed her condition in the coolest sort of manner, and while in the guard house walked the passage with her knitting in hand, plying her work as indifferently as if she were at home under the most ordinary circumstances. She brought with her a proof of the affection and confidence of her husband, in the shape of his will, in which he bequeaths to her at his death all his property, real and personal. What could have induced so shameful and disgraceful a proceeding on her part is a mystery."

——The North-Carolina Christian Conference convened at Union Chapel, Alamance County, on the 5th inst., and continued in session until the 10th. A large number of persons were in attendance and much important business to that branch of the Church was transacted. The introductory sermon was by Rev. Wm. D. Moffit, of High Point.

Five promising young men joined the Bible Class of the Conference and three received license to preach at this session, viz: D. A. Long, Wm. T. Walker and R. A. Tuck.

The report on Home Missions, of which Rev. J. W. Wellons, of Franklinton, was Chairman, showed that a larger amount of ministerial talent was being brought into exercise than ever before in the history of the Conference.

The report on Sabbath Schools, of which Rev. J. N. Manning, of Brooklyn, Va., was Chairman, represented more interest in the Sabbath School work than was ever before exercised.

The report on Temperance, of which Rev. Wm. S. Long, of Graham, was Chairman, called forth an earnest, practical address by Rev. J. W. Wellons, which excited considerable interest. The new Order of Friends of Temperance was highly recommended.

Rev. W. B. Wellons, of Virginia, the Editor of the Christian Sun, and President of the General Convention of the Christian Church, was present, and addressed the Conference in advocacy of the declaration of principles recently adopted by the denomination, on Sabbath Schools, and preached several times.

The next session of the Conference is to be held at Salem Chapel, in Forsyth County, to commence on Friday before the 3rd Sunday in November, 1868.

Large Grape Farm For Sale.

THIS FARM IS SITUATED IN HALIFAX County, North Carolina, in a very healthy and pleasant neighborhood. It contains over 500 ACRES OF LAND,

of which 300 are in cultivation. The soil is well adapted to the growing of Corn, Cotton, Wheat, Grass and all the cereals. It contains

3,000 VINES NOW BEARING GRAPES.

These Vines are mostly of the Scuppernong variety, and for 25 years it ere has not been a failure in this variety to produce its crop. It is the most healthy, the most vigorous and the most productive of any vine yet discovered. 1,000 gallons of Wine may be made from ONE ACRE OF VINES. The wine is said to equal any Madeira, and a Champagne Wine may be made from it. One single Vine has been known to produce TWO HUNDRED GALLONS of Wine AT ONE CROP. For eating, the Scuppernong Grape is far ahead of all others. The crop for 1868 from this Vineyard may be safely estimated at from 5,000 to 7,000 gallons. It contains, also, over of choice varieties, the earliest and latest; and also, a fine variety of

PEACHES, FIGS, PEARS AND CHERRIES.

This Farm has all the necessary Buildings, and is situated in a portion of North Carolina which is FREE FROM CHILLS, and where the water is delightful, and the climate pleasant. The cold is never severe enough to injure vines, however delicate, and there is no need of protection from it at any time.

The above is a fine opening for a profitable investment. Apply to GARRETT & CO.,

From Physicians.

We hereby certify that the Rosadalis is prepared by a Physician, who is an experienced Pharmaceutist and Chemist, and that his remedy is an efficient and reliable one in SCROFULA, Syphilis, &c., it having performed some remarkable cures in this vicinity.

DR. J. J. LAWRENCE—Dear Sir—Please send me immediately per Express to Tarboro, two dozen more bottles of your Rosadalis. I have carefully examed its Formula, and have used it in my practice in a number of cases. I am well pleased with it. I think it, beyond doubt, the best Alterative I ever used. I have tried it in several cases of Scrofula and Scrofulous Affections, &c., with much satisfaction to myself and patients. I have also used it in Secondary and Tertiary Syphilis, (one a terrible case of eight years' standing,) in which it acted with surprising and satisfactory effect—making a quick and thorough cure. I have, therefore, no hesitation in recommending it to Physicians and others, as the most reliable Alterative now known.

Respectfully yours, &c.,

A Wonderful Cure of Scrofulous White Swelling.

HOME CERTIFICATE.

I hereby certify, that last September I was attacked with White Swelling of the left knee—and also with an enlargement of the glands of the neck—[one tumor reached a large size.] The swelling of the knee was enormous, and was attended with the most excruciating pains. I was so reduced that I was confined to my room over three months. My leg was so completely drawn up, that I could not bend it at all. I tried various remedies, and they failed to give me any relief. I was in this condition when I commenced taking Dr. Lawrence's Rosadalis. The swelling in the knee and neck began to subside before I took all of the first bottle. By the time I took the second bottle, the swelling of the neck entirely disappeared and that of the knee nearly so. After taking three bottles I found myself completely well—able to walk as well as ever, &c.

I hereby certify that I was cured of long standing Chronic Rheumatism, by taking four bottles of Dr. Lawrence's Rosadalis.

JAMES WILLIS.

Rosadalis cures Carbuncles, Boils, Pimples, &c.

Certificate from an old and much respected citizen of Greene County, now a resident of Wilson, N. C.

I hereby certify that, during the summer and fall of 1866, that I was severely afflicted with Carbuncles—having had as many as fourteen large Carbuncles, and twelve ordinary boils. I suffered so much from them that I could not get out of the house half the time for several months. Being induced to try Dr. Lawrence's Rosadalis, I was entirely cured by the use of one bottle of that truly valuable medicine.

W. A. DARDEN, Sr.
Wilson, May 11th, 1867.

Consumption, in its Early Stages, can be Cured.

BALTIMORE, Md., March 9th, 1867.

Dear Dr. Lawrence—My daughter having been cured of a deeply seated disease of the lungs by your "Rosadalis." I feel it my duty to make the fact known to you for the benefit of others. She suffered nearly two years with a hard cough, which troubled her day and night; at last the emaciated form, glassy eye, night sweats, together with the cough, told too plainly that it was Consumption, beyond question, eating at her vitals. Our Physician's remedies brought no relief. She was advised to try your Rosadalis, as a tonic—which she did—imagine my surprise and gratification, when I found her appetite returning. Slowly she regained her strength, her cough and night sweats gradually cease d, and she is now, after taking five bottles of your medicine, apparently as well as ever.

Yours respectfully,
MRS. E. ANN SMITH.

Rosadalis cures all Skin Diseases.

Salt Rheum Cured! Remarkable Cure!!

DR. LAWRENCE, Wilson, N. C.:

My Dear Sir—For the last two years (until recently) I suffered with an inveterate eruption of the skin—called by physicians "Salt Rheum," with which I suffered terribly; the pain and itching was almost intolerable. I tried several of the best physicians in Europe and this country—have used several celebrated Springs—spent thousand of dollars—and failed to get any better. In December 1866, being in Charleston S. C., I was told by a gentleman at the hotel, that he had been cured of a bad tetter by a medicine called "Rosadalis." I resolved to try it, without any hope though of its doing me any good. I procured a bottle of Messrs. King & Cassidey, and commenced taking it. Finding, to my surprise, that I was improving, I bought four other bottles; but before commencing on the last two, I found I was completely well—the disease having entirely disappeared.

Enclosed find "One Hundred Dollars," which please accept as a token of my gratitude. Why do you not make your invaluable Rosadalis widely known?

Your sincere friend,
W. T. SELTZER.

Major John W. Dunham, one of the editors of the Wilson "North Carolinian," says in the issue of the 20th April, 1867: "I believe from personal experience, that the Rosadalis is the finest tonic ever prepared."

CHARLESTON, S. C., Oct. 19, 1867.

General Orders No. 101.

By the terms of the Act of Congress entitled "An Act to provide for the more efficient government of the reb l States," passed Mar h 2d, 1867, and of the Acts of March 23d, and July 19th, 1867, supplementary thereto, it is made the duty of the Commanding General of this Military District to cause a registration to be made of the male inhabitants of the State of North Carolina, of the age of twenty-one years and upwards and qualified by the terms of said Acts to vote, and after such registration is complete, to order an election to be held at which the registered voters of said State shall vote for or against a Convention, for the purpose of establishing a Constitution and civil government for the said State, loyal to the Union, and for delegates to said Convention—and to give at least thirty days' notice of the time and place at which said election shall be held; and the said registration having been completed in the State of North Carolina, It is ordered:

First. That an election be held in the State of North Carolina, commencing on Tuesday, the 19th day of November, 1867, and ending on Wednesday, the 20th day of November, 1867, at which all registered voters of said State may vote "For a Convention," or "Against a Convention," and for delegates to constitute the Convention—in case a majority of the votes given on that question, shall be for a Convention, and in case a majority of the registered voters shall have voted on the question of holding such Convention.

Second. It shall be the duty of the Boards of Registration in North Carolina, commencing fourteen days prior to the election herein ordered, and giving reasonable public notice of the time and place thereof, to revise for a period of five days the registration lists, and upon being satisfied that any person not entitled thereto has been registered to strike the name of such person from the list; and such person shall not be entitled to vote. The Boards of Registration shall also, during the same period, add to such registers the names of all persons who at that time possess the qualifications required by said Acts—who have not already been registered.

Third. In deciding who are to be stricken from or added to the registration lists the Boards will be guided by the law of March 2d, 1867, and the laws supplementary thereto, and their attention is specially directed to the Supplementary Act of July 19th, 1867.

Fourth. The said election will be held in each County or District at such places as may hereafter be designated, under the superintendence of the Boards of Registration as provided by law and in accordance with instructions hereafter to be given to said Boards in conformity with the Acts of Congress and as far as may be with the laws of North Carolina.

Fifth. All Judges and Clerks employed in conducting said election shall, before commencing to hold the same, be sworn to the faithful performance of their duties, and shall also take and subscribe the oath of office prescribed by law for officers of the United states.

Sixth. The polls shall be opened at such voting places at eight o'clock in the forenoon and closed at four in the afternoon, of each day, and shall be kept open during those hours without intermission or adjournment.

Seventh. No member of the Board of Registration, who is a candidate for election to a delegate in the Convention, shall serve as a Judge or the election in any County or District which he seeks to represent.

Eighth. The Sheriff and other peace officers of each County are required to be present during the whole time that the polls are kept open, and until the election is completed; and will be made responsible that there shall be no interference with Judges of elections, or other interruption of good order. If there should be more than one polling place in any County, the Sheriff of the County is empowered to make such assignments of his deputies, and other peace officers, to the other polling places, as may, in his judgment, best subserve the purposes of quiet and order; and he is further required to report these arrangements in advance to the Commander of the Military Post in which his County is situated.

Ninth. Violence, or threats of violence, or of discharge from employment, or other oppressive means to prevent any person from registering, or exercising his right of voting, is positively prohibited, and any such attempts will be reported by the Registrars or Judges of elections to the Post Commander, and will cause the arrest and trial of the offenders by military authority.

Tenth. All bar rooms, saloons, and other places for the sale of liquors by retail, will be closed from 6 o'clock of the evening of the 18th of November, until 6 o'clock of the morning of the 21st of November, 1867, and during this time the sale of all intoxicating liquors at or near any polling place is prohibited. The police officers of cities and towns, and the Sheriffs and other peace officers of Counties, will be held responsible for the strict enforcement of this prohibition, and will promptly arrest and hold for trial all persons who may transgress it.

Eleventh. Military interference with elections "unless it shall be necessary to repel the armed enemies of the United States, or to keep the peace at the polls," is prohibited by the act of Congress approved February 25th, 1865, and no soldiers will be allowed to appear at any polling place, unless as citizens of the State they are qualified and are registered as voters, and then only for the purpose of voting; but the Commanders of Posts will keep their troops well in hand on the days of election, and will be prepared to act promptly if the civil authorities are unable to preserve the peace.

Twelfth. The returns required by law to be made to the Commander of the District of the results of this election, will be rendered by the Boards of Registration of the several registration precincts through the Commanders of the Military Posts in which their precincts are situated, and in accordance with the detailed instructions hereafter to be given.

Thirteenth. The number of delegates to the Convention is determined by law and is the number of members of the most numerous branch of the Legislature for the year eighteen hundred and sixty, and this number, one hundred and twenty, is apportioned to the representative Districts of the State in the ratio of registered voters as follows:

RAILROADS.

ATLANTIC & N. C. RAILROAD

AND

NORTH CAROLINA

GRAND TRUNK RAILROAD,

From Charlotte and all Points on the N. Carolina and its Connecting Railroads, to the Seaboard at Newbern and Morehead City.

THE STATE OWNS THREE-FOURTHS OF the North Carolina Railroad and three-fourths of the ATLANTIC & N. C. RAILROAD. This is the

STATE LINE,

To its OWN SEAPORTS and on its OWN ROADS. All other lines are in opposition.

A six per cent dividend on this line will save the people from taxation $280,000 per annum.

Under a resolution of the stockholders of the N. C. Railroad, all Freights are to go via Goldsboro', unless otherwise specially directed by shippers.

When at Goldsboro', you are only sixty miles from the shipping point, instead of one hundred and sixty via Weldon, and eighty via Wilmington. For Freight and Travel. Time as short as by any other, and as cheap.

THIS is the Line

To ENCOURAGE. You get dispatch, safety, but one handling, and less Railroad transportation than by any other line.

Three-fourths of the PROFITS made on this line go directly into the STATE TREASURY, and if encouraged, you will soon be relieved from heavy taxation at least two hundred and ninety-five thousand dollars.

The Railroads composing the N. C. GRAND TRUNK RAILWAY LINE have recently agreed to unite in a

GREAT THROUGH LINE

Route to all the Northern Markets, on equal terms and charges, via our own ports to and from the South.

Cars run through to all points without breaking bulk.

For information about shipping, apply to Messrs. WHEDBEE & DICKINSON, Baltimore.

WE inaugurated and are the Great through Inland Air Line Route to all the Northern Markets, and have successfully worked the Line to the entire satisfaction of Shippers, North and South, for the as ten years, as the ten Thousand Shippers in North and South Carolina will testify. We paid the S at near Seven Hundred Thousand Dollars for her Interest in this Road—thereby saving the people from Taxation for all time to come $40,000 per year; and we unhesitatingly declare that we can and will give more dispatch to all points, North and South, than any other Line.

THE FIRE EXTINGUISHER.

This Portable, Self-Acting Fire Engine

IS OFFERED TO THE Public as a ready, certain and speedy means of preventing LARGE CONFLAGRATIONS.

Until the invention of the

Portable, Self-Acting Fire Engine,

Fires have been met by means too slow, too late and too cumbrous. But few persons in this country have the advantage of large hand or Steam Fire Engines, and those few often suffer a total loss of their property by reason of the great length of time consumed in sending for and getting them into working order.

BUT NOT SO WITH THE FIRE EXTINGUISHER,

which being kept charged and standing in your House, Store or Factory, is always Ready for Instant Service.

The fire can be extinguished and your property saved without loss or damage, or even an alarm of Fire.

The first few minutes of conflagration decide the fate of the property; the little fire is quickly put out, which, being suffered, rivers cannot quench."

THE EXTINGUISHER, being very simple in its operation, and entirely self-propelling, requires no previous skill or practice to operate it, and being so light, portable and self-acting, is capable of being used in any place, by any person, male or female.

It puts out all fires, arising from whatever cause. You are saved from the unnecessary water damage caused by large Engines.

You can effect insurance on your property

At Lower Rates,

if protected by the Extinguisher.

The Extinguisher is no humbug, as thousands of good men in Europe and America will testify some of our best Factories and largest Schools in N. C.

No House, Store, Factory or Corporation is safe without them.

The price is as nothing, compared with the protection they afford.

Send for a Circular.
